FROM THE PODIUM

The College Band Directors National Association is a grass-roots organization that serves its membership in a myriad of ways. At its inception CBDNA sought to address common issues facing the college band director, raise the artistry of its conductors, and develop a repertoire of music distinct from the orchestral world and traditional marches. One of its early missions was to commission renowned composers who had never written for band, and great new pieces were composed by Ingolf Dahl, Aaron Copland, Howard Hanson, and Ernst Krenek to name just a few. These efforts resulted in a proliferation of consortia by band conductors that continues to this day, adding to a vibrant repertoire of new music for band.

As the years have gone by our organization has tackled many different issues facing our profession. Today CBDNA serves a wide variety of constituents, from the conservatory wind ensemble, to the athletic band, to the small college band, and everything in between. We meet at five division conferences in even-numbered years, and at our national conference in the odd years. There is also an annual athletic band symposium; the 2019 conference will be hosted by Brad McDavid at the University of Washington May 29-June 1. Our next national conference will take place in Athens, GA, hosted by Cynthia Johnston Turner and her staff at the University of Georgia Hodgson School of Music February 17-20, 2021.

CBDNA is overseen by a board of directors for which I am president until 2021. This board also includes our six division presidents, past president, immediate past president, president-elect, vice president, secretary, and treasurer. All positions except secretary and treasurer are elected by the membership. There are a number of standing committees working on various topics and issues.

In short, the College Band Directors National Association is a vibrant community of musicians interested in and working in the field of bands of all shapes and sizes. We seek to be the best conductors, musicians, and educators that we possibly can be, and pass that baton to the next generation.

-Mark Spede

COMMISSIONS AND PREMIERS

RISE – Adam Schoenberg

The California Wind Band Consortium was inaugurated by co-leaders Rickey Badua (Cal Poly Pomona University) and John Burdett (Azusa Pacific University) in April 2017. California hosts a vibrant arts/music community that for generations has been home to some of the world's finest composers. This consortium was created to commission leading California-based composers to contribute substantial works to our wind band medium around the world, while inspiring enthusiastic collaboration amongst California collegiate and high school wind band communities. An impressive 32 institutions and ensembles joined this consortium representing every region of California:

- Azusa Pacific University - John Burdett
- Cal Poly Pomona University - Rickey Badua
- California Polytechnic State University-San Luis Obispo - Christopher J. Woodruff
- California State University, Bakersfield - Leo Sakamoto
- California State University, East Bay - Danielle Gaudry
- California State University, Fullerton - Dustin Barr
- California State University, Los Angeles - Emily Moss
- California State University, Northridge - Lawrence Stoffel
- California State University, San Bernardino - Nicholas Bratcher
- California State University, Stanislaus - Stuart Sims
- Caltech-Occidental Wind Orchestra - Glenn D. Price
- Canyon Crest Academy - Amy Villanova
- Cathedral City High School - Matthew K. Howe
- Chabot College - Timothy Harris
- Chaffey College Community - Patrick Aranda
- Clovis North Educational Center - David Lesser
- El Dorado High School - Eric Samson
- Fresno Pacific University - Erik Leung
- Fresno State Wind Orchestra - Gary P. Gilroy
- Glendora High School - Scott Schwarz
- La Sierra University - Giovanni Santos
- Long Beach Polytechnic High School - Andrew Osman
- Mira Mesa High School - Jeanne Christensen
- Mt. San Antonio College - Gregory X. Whitmore

- Orange County School for the Arts - Anthony Mazzaferro
- Riverside City College - Kevin Mayse
- Sacramento State University - Matthew C. Morse
- San José State University - David Vickerman
- Sonoma State University - Andy Collinsworth
- Symphonic Winds of the Pacific - Jeffrey de Seriere
- University of San Diego - Jeffrey A. Malecki
- William S. Hart High School - Anthony Bailey

Adam Schoenberg was commissioned for this inaugural project. Schoenberg was recently named one of the Top 10 most performed living classical composers by professional orchestras in the United States. Recently, our revered U.S. "President's Own" Marine Band released a CD featuring a transcription of Schoenberg's stunning orchestral work "Picture Studies," which has since been a popular work performed amongst our wind band community. Additionally, Jerry Junkin and The University of Texas Wind Ensemble commissioned Schoenberg to write his Symphony No. 2 "Migration" for Band, and premiered it at the 2017 CBDNA National Conference in Kansas City. Schoenberg is a proud resident of Los Angeles, and currently teaching and leading the composition area at Occidental College.

PROGRAM NOTE:

RISE is a two-movement work commissioned by the California Wind Band Consortium. I wanted to create a new piece that could be presented in three distinct ways: Both movements played back-to-back; standalone movements ("Beginnings" can be a concert opener or encore, and "Farewell Song" can be placed anywhere in a program); or having the movements bookend an entire program (i.e., the concert begins with "Beginnings" and closes with "Farewell Song.")

"Beginnings" is designed to function as a long gradual crescendo. It begins with a rhythmic ostinato that becomes the driving force for the entire movement. As it progresses, the orchestration and overall intensity grows, ultimately creating an uplifting and optimistic ending.

"Farewell Song" is based on the final movement of my violin concerto, Orchard in Fog. This movement is meant to have a timeless feel, simultaneously serving as an atmospheric and pastoral-landscape type of sonic experience, while also being imagined as a goodbye song to a loved one.

A special thank you to John Burdett and Rickey Badua, who were not only instrumental in making the commission happen, but also provided me with invaluable guidance in creating a piece that would work for both high school and collegiate ensembles.

- Adam Schoenberg

In Memory Of – Ching-chu Hu

How do we remember those we've lost? We treasure moments as events of the past flash before our mind's eye. Regardless of how a loved one passes, we hold on to the happier times, remembering them in anecdotes, in shared stories, in memories.

The inspiration for In Memory Of came from my inner response of the 2012 devastating Sandy Hook Elementary shootings. While a dark subject, the work itself has many light moments. In Memory Of is a collection of snapshots, of memories, of those we all have lost in our lives. While we grieve, we remember people full of life and love.

While each member of the string quartet takes turns to lead the ensemble, memories collect until a moment of reflection. At this point, you'll hear the violin and the glockenspiel (an orchestral bell) begin to honor the 27 victims, beginning with the children. Each chord signals the age of each child, and this moment of respect builds until the entire ensemble takes part. At that point, the orchestral bells continue tolling for the victims, honoring the seven adults. The list of victims are students: Charlotte Bacon, 6; Daniel Barden, 7; Olivia Engel, 6; Josephine Gay, 7; Dylan Hockley, 6; Madeleine Hsu, 6; Catherine Hubbard, 6; Chase Kowalski, 7; Jesse Lewis, 6; Ana Márquez-Greene, 6; James Mattioli, 6; Grace McDonnell, 7; Emilie Parker, 6; Jack Pinto, 6; Noah Pozner, 6; Caroline Previdi, 6; Jessica Rekos, 6; Avielle Richman, 6; Benjamin Wheeler, 6; Allison Wyatt, 6; adults: Rachel D'Avino, teacher's aide; Dawn Hochsprung, principal; Anne Marie Murphy, teacher's aide; Lauren Rousseau, teacher; Mary Sherlach, school psychologist; Victoria Leigh Soto, teacher; and Nancy Lanza, the perpetrator's mother.

This work is commissioned by the Denison University Initiative for New Music in the Schools for Chris David Westover, the Denison University Wind Ensemble, and ETHEL—friends, artists, and ambassadors of the spirit we all strive to possess.

Falling – HyeKyung Lee

Falling was commissioned by the Denison University New Music Initiative in the Schools for Dr. Chris Westover and ETHEL. The pounding percussions, falling winds, wandering melodies... The driving 16th notes are constantly bouncing between instruments. The long held notes over them are anxious and sometimes urgent. Even when everything is falling apart, you find something to be cheerful...

These two works represent the first iteration of the Denison University Initiative for New Music in the Schools. These works were commissioned by Chris David Westover, the Denison University Wind Ensemble, and ETHEL—friends, artists, and ambassadors of the spirit we all strive to possess. Made possible with generous support from the Licking County Foundation and a consortium of institutions: the University of Michigan, the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Bixby High School (Oklahoma), Michigan Technological University, and Concordia University--Ann Arbor. The works will be available for performance beyond the consortium in Spring 2020.
